Basement Area

A Lincoln man escaped serious burns as flames swept through the basement of his residence here at 10:04 p.m. Wednesday.

Fire Chief Hobart Rose said John Browning, an occupant of the Glenn Naugle Jr. residence, 1122 Sixth st., was in a small basement room when he heard a popping and cracking noise.

When he came out, flames were on the basement ceiling. Naugle singed his hair, but managed to run upstairs and alert firemen. A three year old dog was killed in the fire. Other occupants of the house were not at home when the blaze occurred.

Chief Rose said the fire was possibly caused by grease on a basement stove. The fire was under control in approximately 20 minutes, although firemen remained on the scene for about two hours.

4 and 7 to 9 p.m. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m.

The deceased was born March 17, 1885 in Lincoln, the daughter of Anthony and Mary Ryan Dacey. She was married to William Justen Jan. 1, 1912 and he died Dec. 20, 1946. She was preceded in death by a son, two daughters, six brothers, and four sisters.

She leaves a granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Jo Melton of Springfield.

Mrs. Justen was a member of St. Patrick's church.
