New Play Features

South African Life

U.L.M. West Germany (UPI) — South African playwright Athol Fugard's drama " Sizwe Bansi is Dead" recently had its West German premiere in the Ulm municipal theater.

The play, which features a two-person cast, depicts the black population's everyday life in South Africa.

Sunday, March 13 at 8:15 p.m. a large chorus will present a sacred concert at Earl C. Hargrove Chapel on the campus at Lincoln Christian College.

Richard and Kathryn Hoffland will be directing the chorus. Hoffland is a graduate of Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn. and holds a degree in voice from the American Conservatory of music, Chicago. He has received national recognition for his work with youth choirs and church music programs. Each summer he and his wife conduct the youth choirs at the L.C.A. outdoor ministries center in Oregon, Ill. Hoffland is director of music at Pilgrim Lutheran church, Decatur.

Kathryn Hoffland is also a Concordia College graduate and has been choral school accompanist for over 25 years. She taught vocal music in Bloomington and has directed numerous youth choirs. She presently serves as choral director at St. Teresa high school in Decatur.
