AGE Discrimination

WASHINGTON, July 10 - The U.S. Civil Rights Commission says its study of 10 federally assisted programs shows widespread age discrimination.

The commission announced Tuesday that all state and local programs getting federal money, plus all federal programs, is prohibited from denying Americans of available services because of age.

Some administrative departments because they believe that providing services to younger people will produce a better return for the government's dollar. The commission said.

The commission's 28-month study also suggested that state and local officials have failed to do their obligation to provide equal age discrimination.

Cutler Hammer purchases stock

In a joint announcement released Thursday, Cutler-Hammer, Inc and Leeds and Northrup Co. disclosed that Cutler-Hammer will become a 33.5 percent owner of Leeds and Northrup through the purchase of 724,440 shares of L and N common stock from Tyco Laboratories, Inc

Cutler-Hammer Chairman
 Edmund B Fitzgerald stated that the sale of Tyco's block of L and N stock had been negotiated at a price of $21,733,200 and is expected to be consummated immediately

At the same time Fitzgerald and L and N president, David T Kimball announced that Cutler Hammer has agreed with Leeds and Northrup to convert its 385,000 shares of L and N Series a convertible preferred stock into 57,500 shares of L and N common stock This will give Cutler Hammer a total of 1,301,940 shares of L and N common or 33.5-percent of the outstanding voting securities

As a condition of these transactions the announcement said Tyco L and N and Cutler Hammer agreed to discontinue all litigation between the parties relating to L and N's sale to Cutler-Hammer of the 385,000
 shares of L and N series a preferred stock on Jan 6

Cutler-Hammer further agreed that between now and May 30 1980 it will not make additional purchases of L and N's common stock except for the purpose of the outstanding stock or of maintaining its ownership interest equal to that of any other L
