On the record

COURT ACTION

Victor Juluison, Clinton, was sentenced Monday to the Department of Corrections for one year and fined $500 and costs in two separate charges. The charges were driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and driving while his license was revoked. He was also fined $100 and costs for illegal transportation of alcoholic liquor.

Juluison was found guilty of the three charges in a bench trial Jan. 4. The charges stemmed from an arrest July 18 of leaving the scene of an accident involving a personal injury at Route 66 and Woodlawn Road. Juluison was sentenced to the Department of Corrections Feb. 17 for one and one-half years and fined $300 and costs in connection with leaving the scene of an accident.

Kenneth Bell, 33, Peoria changed a plea of not guilty, to guilty following a plea bargain concerning a charge of deceptive practice in connection with a check he wrote to Kroger's March 23, 1976. He was fined $50 and restitution and one year of court supervision.

Douglas W. Mesachum, 23, rural Benson, was charged Monday with unlawful possession of cannabis. He was fined $100 and costs Monday.

Lloyd A. Oliver, 22, Latham was sentenced Monday to one year probation in connection with a charge of disorderly conduct. Feb. 4 Oliver had reportedly phoned a false bomb threat to the Logan County Sheriff's Department. The bomb was supposed to be located at Green Towers Tavern in Latham according to the report. Police arrested and charged Oliver with the disorderly conduct in connection with the false report. Oliver pleaded guilty to the offense Feb. 22.

HIT AND RUN

Mary Ellen Winkler, 48, Tremont Park, reported her vehicle was damaged Monday. The location of the incident was not known. The damage was to a chrome strip which was torn loose on the rear fender.

ARRESTED

Bernie Lemaster, 27, of 727 Grand Ave., was arrested Tuesday morning and charged with driving while under the influence of liquor following an accident at the corner of Union and Pulaski Streets.

A car driven by Lemaster struck the rear of a car operated by Lance Dwain Hurley, a student at Lincoln Christian College, while he was stopped at a stop sign at Union St on Pulaski. Hurley told police he had stopped and started to proceed when he was struck in the rear by a car operated by Lemaster. He told police Lemaster got out of his car and started to leave when he was able to talk Lemaster into going to the police station in stead. Both drivers walked to the City Hall before police arrived at the accident scene. Police said they detained Lemaster at the station and sent Hurley back to the accident scene. Police arrested Lemaster at the police station and charged him at that time with driving while under the influence of liquor and he was given a breathalyzer test.

LICENSED TO WED

Virgil M. Steffens and Nelthe M. Webb, both of Janavir, Mark D. Snyder of Lincoln and Connie J. Rusk of Normal
