Scouts benefit

The Girl Scouts of Lincoln have been named beneficiaries of $12,000 of the estate of Ella O. Werschey of Lincoln.

As members of the Land of Lincoln Council, the volunteers from the Lincoln area (Service Unit 1), designated the funds for the benefit of all the girls throughout the council. Half the funds were used to purchase a tractor for camp maintenance.

Remaining funds have been designated in the following manner:

$2,500 - Five new platform tents for Camp Widjwagan.

$500 - Juliette Low Friendship Fund.

$500 - Sun dial and dedication memorial for Ella Werschey to be erected at Widji.

$2,000 - Pool fund for Widji. If the pool funds are not used within five years, the money will be used for additional platform tents. Ella Werschey was a strong supporter of Girl Scouting.
