SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois

San Jose boy killed

SAN JOSE — Funeral arrangements at the Kuecks-Woosley Funeral Home in Pelkin are incomplete for eight-year old Brian Nance, who was killed in a car-bicycle accident Friday evening.

According to the report filed by Sgt. Leland Keith of the Mason County Sheriff's Department, the Nancy boy, who is the foster child of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wagner of rural route 1, was riding his bike on the county blacktop near his home.

He was struck by a car driven by 17-year-old Mark Squires of San Jose.

The report said the car was headed west and the 5:30 p.m. accident occurred on a "turtleback hill." Both the sheriff's department spokesman and Mason County Coroner Jerry Hurley said the bicycle was on the "crest of the hill but was invisible until it was too late."

Also at the scene of the accident, southeast of the Prairie Trails restaurant, were the San Jose Rescue squad members.

Earthquake

Mount Pulaski man

MOUNT PULASKI — A Mount Pulaski man was killed and four other people were injured Friday night in a two-car collision on Illinois 121 a mile southeast of U.S. 54.

Virgil B. Dinger, 71, of 208 W. Morgan St. was pronounced dead at the scene after the car he was driving was hit by the car driven by Elbert L. James, 50, of Flint, Mich.

According to state police, Dinger's car was facing north and was stalled crossways on 121. It was struck broadside by the James car, which was southbound.

James suffered minor injuries and was treated by paramedics at the scene. Also injured were three of the six passengers in the James vehicle. They were Obella M. James, 49, of Flint, Mich., Sandra Franklin, 22, of Chicago and Joyce Franklin, 20, also of Chicago. All three women were taken by Lincoln-Logan Ambulance to Decatur Memorial Hospital, Decatur, where they were treated and released.

The accident was investigated by Trooper Wayne Maxey. No tickets were issued.

Dinger was a farm laborer and a member of Moose Lodge 1441 at Lincoln.

He was born Dec. 15, 1909, in Dalton City, the son of Tona and Clara Thackery Dinger. He married Floris Jenkins Oct. 14, 1940, at St. Charles, Mo.

Surviving are his wife, in Mount Pulaski; five sons, Steve, Mount Pulaski; Patrick, David and Tony, all of Lincoln; and Richard, Decatur; three daughters, Lois Fishburn, Mount Pulaski; Vickie Puble, Lincoln; and Phylis Shockley, Tower Hill; two brothers, Earl of Sullivan and Joe in California; one sister, Mary Bailey, also in California; 21 grandchildren; and two step grandchildren.
