Elevator hit

Lightning struck Folgerty Elevator south of Lincoln during Tuesday evening's thunderstorm.

Bill Bradley, Emergency Services and Disaster Agency director, saw the lightning hit the structure while he was observing the storm system from the 123 exit of I-55. "There was a big blue ball on top of the elevator," Bradley said.

Lincoln firemen went to the scene and conducted an investigation of the premises. No fire was discovered, and no damage was reported.

Firemen also were called to the Tom Bevard residence, 518 S. Washington St., at 8:30 p.m. There they found an electrical short resulting from water leaking through the roof onto a light fixture in a bedroom closet. The power was disconnected, and no further damage was reported.

Bradley said the local weather warning system had been activated at 4:05 p.m. Tuesday and was cleared at 1:36 a.m. Wednesday. Several thunderstorms passed through the area, and tornadoes were confirmed at Decatur and Harrisburg, he said. A tornado watch had been issued for the area until 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Trial concluding

Greg Roosevelt, assistant Logan County State's Attorney, and Michael Costello, attorney for David A. Tomei, summarized their cases at the arson trial continued in Logan County Court.

At Courier presstime, both lawyers had concluded their arguments to the jury and Judge Richard Baner was instructing the five men and seven women before they began deliberation.

Tomei, a 20-year-old former Lincoln College student, is charged with arson and criminal damage to property in the Sept. 7, 1980 fire at the dining hall of Lincoln College. A trial on arson charges stemming from the Dec. 8, 1979 fire at O'Brien Glass Co. in Lincoln, against the Naperville resident is scheduled to begin at the conclusion of the current one.

Lieutenant Governor post sought by Bloom

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois State Senator Prescott E. Bloom (R-Peoria) today advised his colleagues he is considering seeking the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor. The two term Peoria lawmaker identified his legislative service as his chief qualification for the office.

In a letter dated June 23, Bloom told Republican legislators and party officials he would run an extremely aggressive campaign if he decided to enter the contest. His decision is expected before the end of the summer.

Senator Bloom was first elected to the Illinois General Assembly in 1974; he was re-elected in 1978. Presently he serves as Chairman of the Joint House-Senate Administrative Rules Committee which reviews new regulations to insure they meet the intent of the law. Minority spokesman on the Senate Finance and Credit Regulations Committee, Bloom also is a member of the Judiciary Committee.
