A bicycle was taken sometime Sunday from the front yard at the Linda Robson residence, 101 Chamber Court.

A glass lamp shade was taken from the yard light at the Opal Sarver residence, 705 N. Monroe St., sometime Sunday evening.

Traffic accidents

Thirteen hogs were killed Monday morning when a semi tractor-trailer ran off the roadway on 1325 E, three miles south of Lincoln. The semi, driven by Weldon E. Beach Jr. of rural Litchfield, was northbound on 1325 E near 1200 N when the truck edged too near the shoulder of the road. The shoulder was very soft, and the semi drifted into the ditch. Once the truck had stopped, the load of hogs shifted, causing the semi to roll over in the ditch and killing 13 of the hogs. The hogs were valued at an estimated $120 each. There was also damage to 80 feet of a corn row in a field belonging to Donald Gehlbach of R.R. 3.

Leonard J. Stengel of Springfield was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident after the semi he was driving struck the rear of a car at 12:41 p.m. Monday at the intersection of Union Street and Woodlawn Road. Stengel was northbound on Union behind the car driven by John W. Kuznik of 135 Mayfair Drive when the traffic light at the intersection turned yellow. Kuznik stopped, and Stengel's semi hit the rear of the car.
