GOT A MATCH?

CLOQUET, Minn. (AP) — In the 1800s matches had to be made by hand, before machines were developed for making them.

Usually, wooden matches are made from aspen logs, and then dipped into chemicals to form the heads. Such matches are known as "strike anywhere" matches.

One factory here can produce 10 million such matches an hour.

NEW SIGN — Pictured is the new goal sign for this year's United Way campaign. The sign was designed and built by residents of Logan Correctional Center, rural Lincoln. Under the supervision of Warden Steve McEvers, assistant Warden Dan Sexton, and Chief Engineer Cliff Sullivan, the sign was recently installed by the residents of the Correctional Center on the corner of the courthouse lawn, facing Kickapoo and Broadway streets.

The sign features raised, hand-cut lettering and the United Way logo. A thermometer is constructed in the center to indicate the progress of the campaign.

Two charged in car theft

A routine traffic stop of a vehicle early Friday morning resulted in the arrest of two St. Louis, Mo. men by the Illinois State Police.

State Trooper Dan Fruge stopped a northbound auto driven by Dennis J. Skinner, 24, for speeding while traveling northbound between Williamsville and Elkhart. After checking the vehicle, it was learned that the vehicle which Skinner was driving had been stolen. It was also learned that Skinner had a parole violation in Jefferson City, Mo.

A passenger in the auto, Melvin J. Anderson, 20, also of St. Louis, was arrested with Skinner. A sawed-off shotgun was found in the vehicle and they were charged with unlawful use of a weapon, in addition to the stolen car charges.

Both are being held in the Logan County Jail.

The two appeared in Judge John T. McCullough's court Friday afternoon and were officially charged with theft over $150 and unlawful use of weapons. The public defender was appointed to represent the two and a preliminary hearing set for Oct. 2 in Judge Robert L. Thornton's court.
