Harold Bailey

MASON CITY — Harold Bailey, 71, of Easton was found dead Tuesday near a tractor on a farm, the apparent victim of a heart attack.

Bailey apparently died while operating the tractor, which circled in the field until it ran into a hedge row and stopped, according to Mason County Coroner Jerry Hurley.

Bailey had been employed by Corn Products International in Pekin for 26 years and was a member of the Methodist Church at Easton.

He was born Aug. 28, 1910, in Middletown, the son of Elmer and Roxie Wright Bailey. He married Lydia Lanager May 10, 1931, in Greenview. She died March 15, 1970.

Surviving are two sons, Don of Manito and Mike of Havana; four daughters, Peggy Heinhorst, Champaign; Patricia Hamilton, Paxton; Penny Pratt, Petersburg; and Mary Lou DiGiacoma, Altus, Okla.; two brothers, Loren, Petersburg, and Bob, Washington; 16 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, a daughter, two brothers and a grandchild.

His funeral will be at 11 a.m. Friday at Easton Methodist Church, with the Rev. Robert Morwell officiating. Burial will be in Mason City Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 tonight at Cain Funeral Home, Mason City.

Memorials may be made to Easton Methodist Church.

Middletown rescue squad receives funds

By WINIFRED GOLDEN
Courier Reporter

MIDDLETOWN — In the regular monthly session for April village president, Homer Quisenberry presided, with village trustees present.

Minutes of the regular March meeting were approved as were those for the special meeting of March 10 concerning use of revenue sharing funds. The chairman of the finance committee presented the current bills to be paid.

As the April meeting was open to the general public for ideas and suggestions for the use of revenue sharing funds, Tammy Anderson and Kathy LaForge of the Middletown Emergency Medical squad presented a list of needed equipment. Fred Myers made the motion that the Village Board donate $1600 from the revenue sharing funds to the Middletown rescue squad for the items needed to carry on their work. Barbara Johnson seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

Mina Dambacher made the motion that the 1982 revenue sharing funds be designated as having been spent for the purpose of public safety. Fred Myers seconded the motion, and it carried.

Discussion concerning the repair of the village flagpole in the Park resulted in a motion that the board should assume this responsibility. The village president is to initiate the repair.

Bill Wilson of the Middletown Sesquicentennial Committee requested permission from the Board to dismantle the playground equipment in the Park during the period of celebration, Memorial Day weekend, to prevent injury to children. The Board granted this request.

Bellinger

Geraldine Liesman, bellringer chairperson for Hartsburg, has announced that May is Mental Health Month and bellringers will be working in the area (door to door) collecting for the worthy cause.

"By giving, the community can be proud to join the forces working to fight mental illness through the Mental Health Association in Illinois," said Ms. Liesman. "The need is tremendous — one in four families is affected by mental or emotional disturbances; children are as prone to emotional problems as adults. Please help when called upon."
