Goodman Transfer awarded NH-M parking lot contract

NEW HOLLAND — School maintenance and repair was on the agenda of the New Holland-Middletown school board's recent meeting.

Goodman's Transfer of Lincoln was given a contract to excavate and fill a new parking lot at the Middletown school. The contract was for $3,215.

Sealing of windows was also discussed. The middle school building's windows are now being done with others slated for repair this summer.

Several school trips were also approved, as was a $2,567 bid for the high school yearbook for 1982-

83. Superintendent Kenneth Cox told the board that the hot lunch program will end the year with a $5,200 deficit. Part of that results from a $1,000 repair to a disposal unit, he said.

Cox also distributed copies of a proposed athletic policy. He asked board members to read the policy before discussing it at a June 14 board meeting.

Tuition charge-backs were approved for David Tibbs, Jeff Knollenberg and Steve Wilson.

The board accepted the resignation of Sheila Davison who had been on maternity leave
