

OBITUARIES

Bessie Reader

ATLANTA — Logan County's second oldest resident, Bessie June Reader, 106, a resident of the Bartmann Health Care Center in rural Atlanta since 1974, died at 7 p.m. Saturday (Oct. 31, 1992) at the center.

Mrs. Reader was born June 28, 1886 and was a month younger than Kate Morris of Middletown, who was born May 21, 1886. Mrs. Morris still lives with her daughter, Leona Agnew.

Mrs. Reader was of the Baptist faith.

She was born June 28, 1886, in Lamar, Mo., a daughter of William and Martha Andrew Shelton.

After the family moved west, Reader was three when the family moved back to Missouri by covered wagon in 1889.

She married Irvin Reader on March 2, 1907, in Clayton, Mo. They had no children and lived in the Carlinville area most of their married life.

Mrs. Reader was, for a time, a teacher in the Palmyra area.

The Readers moved to Middletown in the late 1950s.

Mr. Reader died Oct. 21, 1960, the year Mrs. Reader moved to New Holland.

She also was preceded in death by four brothers and two sisters, none of whom lived to be older than age 88.

Mrs. Reader lived several years in New Holland before moving to the Bartmann Health Care Center in 1974 at the advice of her physician, the late Dr. Wayne J. Schall.

Dr. Schall advised the move because of Reader's age at the time, Reader's niece, Ralpho Hartwig of New Holland, said today.

"She never, ever complained that she was living so long," Hartwig said. "Until about a year ago, was doing very well. She had a beautiful voice. Her favorite song was, 'You are my Sunshine.' She was real witty."

Survivors include several nieces and nephews, also including nephews Orris Shelton of Lincoln and Zane Shelton of Middletown.

Orris Shelton said of his aunt, "She loved to sing. She was known for her singing at Bartmann's. She was kind of a special one out there. In her 90s, she was still singing."

She also had been a seamstress prior to moving to Bartmann's.

"They were so good to her at the nursing home," Hartwig said. "They loved her. It was her home. All the aides were just really great with her."

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Stults-Neece Funeral Home, Palmyra, with the Rev. John Shelton officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Palmyra.

Visitation will be during the hour before the service Tuesday at the funeral home.

Edith Lytle

Edith F. Lytle, 86, of Valparaiso, Ind., formerly of Lincoln, died Friday, Oct. 23, 1992, at her residence.

Mrs. Lytle, a Lincoln High School graduate, attended the First Church of the Nazarene in Portage, Ind., was active in the church's missions work.

She was born Sept. 7, 1906, in Macedonia, a daughter of Noah and Iva Campbell Hutchcraft. She married Morris Lytle in 1946. He died in 1967.

Survivors include two brothers, Walter Hutchcraft of Shawano, Wis., and Rock Hutchcraft of Blue Island; one sister, Stella Keys of Yellville, Ark.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday at the Dolton, Ill., First Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Debora Lynn Ferch White officiating. Burial was in Homewood Memorial Gardens in Homewood, Ill.

Engle Funeral Home, Portage, Ind., handled arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the Nazarene Missionary Retirement and Benevolent Fund.

Anna Taylor

Anna Schoof Taylor, 57, of St. Joseph, Mo., a Lincoln native, died at 8 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, 1992, in St. Joseph, Mo.

Mrs. Taylor had been a medical technician at the state hospital in St. Joseph. While living in Lincoln, she had been employed by Kresge and K Mart stores, both in Lincoln and Bloomington, for 15 years. She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Lincoln.

She was born May 2, 1935, in Lincoln, a son of Arnold and Anna Haak Sr.

Survivors include two sons, Richard Schoof and Gary Schoof, both of St. Joseph, Mo.; one daughter, Debbie Williams of Blockow, Mo.; four brothers, Walter Haak and Carl Haak, both of Waukegan, Arnie Haak of Lincoln and Harold Haak of Palmdale, Fla.; five sisters, Ruby Voyles and Rosie Swingle, both of Lincoln, Dorothy Lisle of Amazonia, Mo., Betty Evans of St. Joseph, Mo., and Janice Waters of Gower, Mo.; five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Taylor, one brother, one sister and one grandson.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Heaton-Bowman-Smith and Sidenfaden Chapel of St. Joseph, Mo. Burial will be in Mount Auburn Cemetery, St. Joseph, Mo.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8:30 p.m. at the chapel.

Memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

Edna Taylor

CLINTON — Edna B. Taylor, 82, of Clinton died at 11:55 p.m. Friday, Oct. 30, 1992, at Dr. John Warner Hospital, Clinton.

Mrs. Taylor was born July 29, 1910, in Grayville, a daughter of John and Mary Jane Yates Blackard. She married Charles Taylor Sr. on Sept. 19, 1925, in Decatur. He survives.

Other survivors include one son, Charles Taylor Jr. of Clinton; one daughter, Geraldine Dietrich of East Moline; 10 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one son and one sister.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Herington-Calvert Funeral Home, Clinton, with Don Good officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Clinton.

Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. today at the funeral home.
