Iowa-based casino leaving for richer waters

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DUBUQUE, Iowa — The Dubuque Casino Belle, leaving Iowa to pursue richer gaming fields, held its final stationary "cruises" today as emotional staffers said their goodbyes.

"It's a pretty emotional day, even though we know it has been coming," said marketing will leave Dubuque by the weekend, headed to St. Charles, Mo.

The Belle becomes the third gambling boat to leave Iowa in the two years that riverboat gambling has been legal. Two others departed Bettendorf and southeast Iowa last July.

There are two remaining boats of the original five.
