Man who used boy, 2, as shield against gunfire convicted

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CHICAGO — A man who prosecutors said used a 2-year-old boy as a shield to protect him from gunfire has been convicted of aggravated battery to the child.

The boy, Jonathan Williams, was shot in the head and suffered brain damage that affected his speech.

Matthew Hall, 33, was convicted Thursday.

Prosecutors said Hall grabbed the boy during a drive-by shooting a year ago, using him as a shield.
